CATHOLIC IDENTITY/RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
BASIC CATECHESIS-KEN CANTWELL-DRE 06/25/17

34. What should families be doing on Sunday? Almost anything that strengthens the family bond, such as, attending Mass together, dining together, recreating together, or just relaxing together.
35. What should be the number one focus for Catholics on Sunday? The highest priorities are worship and rest.
36. Upon what scripture does the Church base its Sunday requirements? In the Old Testament "Observe the Sabbath day by keeping it holy, as the Lord your God has commanded you" (Deuteronomy 5:12). In the New Testament, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath" (Mark 2:27).
37. What is the Fourth Commandment of God? HONOR THY FATHER AND THY MOTHER.
38. What is forbidden by the fourth commandment? To show disrespect, disloyalty, disobedience or indifference toward our parents.
39. Do children have a life-time obligation to their parents? Yes, we may never neglect our parents, but especially in their old age.
40. Does this obligation apply even when the parents are separated by divorce or remarriage? Yes, we are never free of this obligation regardless of where our parents end up in life.
41. In addition to our parents, who else must we honor and obey? We are obliged to respect and obey all lawful authority placed over us by Almighty God and society.
42. Cite some examples of lawful authority. Some examples of lawful authority would be teachers, pastors, policeman, judges, guardians, and politicians.
43. Are there occasions when we may disobey our parents or other authority figures? Yes, anytime we are required to commit sinful acts that would violate our conscience.

Hour of Power/Friday Adoration 06/25/2017
Things You Can't Take Back-Venerable Fulton Sheen

Certain things that we have in us, once they are given out, are never meant to be taken back. One is the air breathe. If we take that air back into ourselves, it poisons us. Love is another. When love is breathed out to another human heart, it is never meant to be taken back. If it is taken back, it suffocates and poisons us.

Please call Ken Cantwell at 620-3675 or the Office at 898-1779 to sign up for an hour of weekly Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament and learn if you are "breathing out" love or poisoning yourself .

Please Pray for:

FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM

June 21–July 4

Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty

O God our Creator,
from your provident hand we have received
our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.
You have called us as your people and given us
the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God,
and your Son, Jesus Christ.
Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit,
you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world,
bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel
to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us
in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty.
Give us the strength of mind and heart
to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened;
give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church
and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father,
a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church
in this decisive hour in the history of our nation,
so that, with every trial withstood
and every danger overcome—
for the sake of our children, our grandchildren,
and all who come after us—
this great land will always be "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

THE REAL PRESENCE—CORPUS CHRISTI

We have gone, step by step, in the course of the liturgical year, from the consideration of the mysteries of the life of Jesus to the contemplation of the Blessed Trinity, to the Feast of Corpus Christi. This solemnity is not just the simple memorial of an historical event which took place 2,000 years ago at the Last Supper; rather, it recalls us to the ever-present reality of Jesus always living in our midst. We can say, in truth, that He has not "left us orphans," but has willed to remain permanently with us, in the integrity of His Person, and in the fullness of His humanity and His divinity. The Incarnation of the Word, Jesus-- the mystery of the merciful love of God, who so loved mankind that He became "flesh" for our salvation -- is prolonged and extended through the ages, and will be until the end of time, by the Eucharist. The Eucharist is not only Jesus actually living among us, but it is Jesus become our Food! God was not content with giving us His only Son once and for all, willing Him to take flesh in the womb of a Virgin—flesh like ours, so that He might suffer and die for us on the Cross—but God wished Him to remain with us forever, perpetuating His Real Presence and His sacrifice in the Eucharist. Aided by the Gospels, we can reconstruct and relive in our hearts the sweet memories of the life of Jesus. Had we nothing but the Gospels, however, we would have only nostalgic memories; Jesus would no longer be with us, but only in heaven at the right hand of the Father, having definitively left the earth on the day of His Ascension. Oh how different the reality! The Eucharist makes the Presence of Jesus with us a permanent one. In the consecrated Host we find the same Jesus whom Mary brought into the world, whom the shepherds found wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger; whom Mary and Joseph nurtured and watched over as He grew before their eyes; the Jesus who called the Apostles to follow Him, who captivated and taught the multitudes, who performed the most startling miracles; who said He was the "light" and "life" of the world, who forgave Magdalen and raised Lazarus from the dead; who for love of us, sweat blood, received the kiss of a traitor, was made one enormous wound, and died on the Cross; the same Jesus who rose again and appeared to the Apostles and whose wounds Thomas put his finger; who ascended into Heaven, who now is seated in glory at the right hand of His Father, and who, in union with the Father, sends us the Holy Spirit. Jesus is present in the Eucharist with all His divinity and His humanity. Therefore, Our Eucharistic Lord knows and loves us as God and as Man. He is not a passive object for our adoration but He is living; He sees us, listens to us, answers our prayers with His graces. Thus we may have, with the gentle Master of the Gospel, a living and concrete relationship which, although imperceptible to our senses, are similar to those which His contemporaries had with Him. It is true that in the Eucharist not only His divinity but even His humanity is hidden; however, faith supplies for our senses, faith substitutes for what we do not see or touch. As Jesus, disguised as a traveler, once taught the disciples of Emmaus, and inflamed their hearts, so too, Jesus hidden under the Eucharistic veil illumines our souls, inflames them with His love and inclines our souls ever more effectively toward sanctity. Jesus is there, in the consecrated Host, true God and true Man; as to become incarnate for us under the Sacred Species. There He waits for us, longs for us, is always ready to welcome us. He even deigns to dwell within our souls, vivified by grace. We always have need of contact with Jesus. Here on earth we are never closer to Him than when we receive the Sacrament of the Eucharist. "O Jesus, You are always with us, yesterday, and today, and the same forever (Heb 13:8). Nos. 200-201 Meditations, Divine Intimacy by Fr. Gabriel of St. Mary Magdalen, O.C.D.
