Law and Morality (Cont)

44. What is the Fifth Commandment of God? YOU SHALL NOT KILL.
45. What is forbidden by the fifth commandment? While murder and suicide are the most serious of offenses against the commandment, any personal harm to oneself or to another is prohibited.
46. Name some specific sins against this commandment. Sins, such as, abortion euthanasia, terrorism, and physical abuse are all offenses against the fifth commandment.
47. What other sins constitute a violation against the fifth commandment? Sins like anger, hatred, revenge, and torture, also fall under the fifth commandment.
48. Is there ever a time when it is licit to kill? Yes, on three occasions: self-defense, war, and capital punishment.
49. What are the Church's objections to blanket capital punishment? Primarily, the Church argues against capital punishment because it is not enforced equitably by all governments, and further, there is a slight chance the criminal may be innocent as charged.
50. What is the most common occurrence in the area of capital punishment? Often, it is only the poor who are condemned because they cannot hire expensive lawyers to defend themselves.
51. What is the Sixth Commandment of God? YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY.
52. What does the sixth commandment forbid? Along with extra-marital relations, it forbids any and all sexual activity outside marriage. In addition, any acts of immodesty or impurity in dress or speech are forbidden.
53. To what other commandment is the sixth related? The sixth and the ninth commandments are related because of their express prohibitions of extra-marital thought or action.

We Share a Common Burden-Venerable Fulton Sheen

There is unfortunately a far greater unity among the enemies of God than among his friends. Hitler and Stalin buried their mutual hatred of each other because they found a greater hatred—God and religion. Here is a common burden of all believers in God: relight the lamp of faith in the souls of men.

Please call Ken Cantwell at 620-3675 or the Office at 898-1779 to sign up for an hour of weekly Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament and Jesus will “ relight your lamp” so you can inspire others to take up the Cross.

There is a saying, "To those whom much is given, much is expected." That saying is from "Uncommon Wisdom of John F. Kennedy: A Portrait in His Own Words." That saying should sum up our thoughts as we celebrate the founding of our country. As we look at our history, we may easily see that much has been given to this country, and many have sacrificed to make sure we have kept those gifts. However, our faith informs us that a gift reaches its ultimate good only when it is given away freely.

We have many gifts, and our country has a long tradition of giving many gifts to other nations. Moreover, sometimes it seems as if those gifts are not appreciated. Nevertheless, we continue to give. Let us pray for this great country of the United States of America:

God our Father, from whom all good gifts come, we are thankful for rest and food. Grant that, in all we do or say, we keep your goodness always in our thankful hearts. We entreat you to bless all those who work to keep us safe, and ask your blessings on all those who work to share our blessings with others around the world. We ask all this in the name of our brother and Savior, Jesus. Amen.

REFLECTION

"And of what should we be afraid? Our captain on this battlefield is Christ Jesus. We have discovered what we have to do. Christ has bound our enemies for us and weakened them that they cannot overcome us unless we so choose to let them. So we must fight courageously and mark ourselves with the sign of the most Holy Cross." St. Catherine of Sienna

THE WEIGHT OF THE HOLY MASS: A TRUE LIFE STORY

You will never want to miss attending Mass after reading this. The following TRUE STORY was related to Sr. M. Veronica Murphy by an elderly nun who heard it from the lips of the late Reverend Father Stanislaus. One day many years ago, in a little town in Luxembourg, a Colonel of the Forest Guards was in deep conversation with the butcher when an elderly woman entered the shop. The butcher broke off the conversation to ask the old woman what she wanted. She had come to beg for a little meat but had no money. The Colonel was amused at the woman and the butcher. "Only a little meat, but how much are you going to give her?" he wondered. "I am sorry I have no money, but I'll hear Mass for you," the woman told the butcher. Both the butcher and the Colonel were indifferent about religion, so they at once began to scoff at the old woman's idea. "All right then," said the butcher. "You go and hear Mass for me and when you come back I'll give you as much as the Mass is worth." The woman left the shop and returned later. She approached the counter and the butcher said, "All right then we'll see." He took a slip of paper and wrote on it 'I heard a Mass for you.' He placed the paper on the scales and a tiny bone on the other side, but nothing happened. Next he placed a piece of meat instead of the bone, but still the paper proved heavier. Both men were beginning to feel ashamed of their mockery but continued their game. A large piece of meat was placed on the balance, but still the paper held its own. The butcher, exasperated, examined the scales but found they were alright. "What do you want my good woman? Must I give you a whole leg of mutton?" At this he placed the leg of mutton on the balance, but the paper still outweighed the meat. A larger piece of meat was put on, but again the weight remained on the side of the paper. This so impressed the butcher that he was converted and promised to give the woman her daily ration of meat. As for the Colonel, he left the shop a changed man and became an ardent lover of daily Mass. Two of his sons became priests, one a Jesuit and the other a Father of the Sacred Heart. Father Stanislaus finished the story by saying, "I am the Religious of the Sacred Heart and the Colonel was my father!" From this incident the Colonel became a daily Mass attendant and his children were trained to follow his example. Later when his sons became priests, he advised them to say Mass well every day and never miss the Sacrifice of the Mass through any fault of their own. O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us! We place our trust in You! (<http://www.francismary.org/the-weight-of-the-holy-mass-a-true-life-story/>)
